

Media Statement

1 November 2017

VicForests Spokesperson said:

"VicForests has consented to delay harvesting in Princess Cut until a further hearing can be held in December which will provide the Flora Fauna and Research Collective an opportunity to put its case in more detail.

"We believe our operation complies with the regulatory framework governing timber harvesting in Victoria.

"We look forward to the court clarifying obligations in regards to this."

-ends